These courses will be conducted online so you'll need a device with reliable internet connection and a distraction free area for learning. A headset can be useful to keep your focus on training and since we'll be using the Zoom platform a webcam will help with interaction.

Prefer a face-to-face session? We can do that too! Email info@masmanagementsystems.com.au for more information about this option.

And the most important thing? An open mind and a willingness to learn and share!

One of the most valuable features of our courses is the follow up session.

A couple of weeks after the training, Maree contacts participants to check on their progress and run through solutions to issues they may have encountered.

This is a huge value-add to our clients who appreciate not being left high and dry!

We're always pleased to receive comments about our training and have been delighted to have only positive feedback from past participants:

"A great opportunity for learning with others - highly interactive and extremely useful"

"A very instructive day (Lab Manager)"

"Thanks Maree for running a very useful workshop that is very relevant at the moment"
(Quality Coordinator)

"Our NATA assessment went perfectly - we couldn't have done it without the training!"
(Quality Manager)

"I had no idea where to start! The training gave me such confidence, I knew where to begin and have been able to expand my knowledge from there".
